

Foodie Plus

Effortlessly plan, order and manage your team meals

Organize the perfect weekly meal plan

Access a dashboard display of recommended restaurants or let your team choose their favorites.

Team meals that cover everyone's needs

Support a range of dietary preferences with the ability to place an order from multiple restaurants.

Get the most out of your budget

Individual or family style orders to help curb food waste and adapt to fluctuating head counts.

Order management dashboard

Manage orders across multiple locations, track your order status and send your team reminders to order.

Dedicated account manager

Receive local restaurant recommendations and personal support for last minute changes and complex orders.

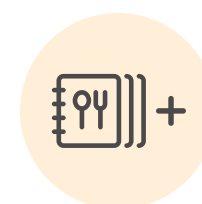

Unmatched customer service

Your team has access to real time support via phone, email or live chat for any inquiries.

Usage reports and analytics

Create custom weekly or monthly financial reports and access a company wide overview of all your orders.

Filter by diet and cuisine preferences

Invite your team to create their own dietary profiles and filter by restaurant selections that match their preferences.

“ Foodie is awesome for organizing team meals at work. They have come through for me many times, helping me plan meals. And the support team are wonderful.”
